Christina Duke Dies At 90 In Heber Home

HEBER — Christina K. (Aunt Teenie) Duke, 90, Wasatch County mother of the year in 1956, died at her home Thursday at 3:15 a.m. after an illness.

Mrs. Duke

Mrs. Duke was former owner-operator of the Duncan House Hotel, Dukes Cafe, and City Bakery, all in Heber.

She was a charter member of the Shakespearean Club and a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Born March 5, 1873, in Heber, she was the daughter of James L. and Agnes Watson Lindsay. She married Jonathan M. (Dick) Duke on July 24, 1891, in Heber. The marriage was later solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple.

Mr. Duke died Oct. 4, 1942.

She is survived by the following sons and daughters: Victor J., Mrs. Mose (Minnie) Whitaker, both Salt Lake City; Harold S., Helper; Mrs. Ford (Jean) Fisher, Keetley, Wasatch County; Mrs. Merrell (Maybell) Miner, Magna; 22 grandchildren, 48 great-grandchildren; 13 great-great-grandchildren; brother, and sisters, Bennett Lindsay, Mrs. Lizzie Jones, Mrs. Jean Hicken Horner, Mrs. Hazel Giles, Mrs. Gladys Duke, all of Heber.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 1 p.m., in the Heber First-Sixth Ward chapel. Friends may call at Olpin Mortuary, Heber, Friday from 7 to 9 p.m. and Saturday before services. Burial will be in the Heber Cemetery.
